Pledges and Agreements

①This falls under the payment requirements for the "Anjo City's Priority Stipend in Response to Rising Prices" (hereinafter referred to as "this Stipend").

a. The applicant's Basic Resident Register is registered in this city as of the record date (December 1, 2023).

b. All members of the household are exempt from residence tax on per capita basis for FY 2023.

c. The applicant is not dependent on any other relatives who are subject to residence tax for the fiscal year 2023.

②There is no one in the household who has income subject to resident tax for the fiscal year 2023 but has not yet filed a tax return.

③I agree that the Anjo City may check the basic resident register information, tax information, and other public records as necessary to examine the eligibility of the applicant for this Stipend, and may request or share the necessary information from or with other administrative agencies.

④I will submit the relevant documents, if the information cannot be confirmed in the public register, etc.

⑤This application form will be treated as a claim form for this Stipend after the grant decision has been made by the Anjo City.

⑥I agree that, after the City of Anjo decides to make the payment, if the payment can not be completed due to the reasons such as the difficulty in transferring the money, or if the necessary documents are not provided by the deadline specified by Anjo City, this Stipend will not be paid.

⑦I agree that if, after the payment of this Stipend is made, it is found that the information on the application form is false or that the applicant does not meet the requirements for the payment of this benefit, I will return this Stipend.

⑧The same household has not already received this Stipend. If this Stipend has already been received, this Stipend shall be returned.

Cash payment

In principle, in order to ensure prompt payment, this Stipend is transferred through the bank account transfer, but cash payment can also be made only in cases where bank account transfer is difficult. If you would like to receive payment in cash, please enter ✓ in the check box below (□). We will inform you of the payment location and payment date at a later date. If you wish to receive the payment in cash, please be aware of the following points in advance.

- * The timing of the payment will be much later than the payment by bank transfer.
- * The notice regarding payment location, payment date, etc., will be sent by mail. If you relocate or move to new location, please immediately inform Stipend Call Center of your new address to ensure you get the notification.
- * You agree that, if you are unable to receive the notification of the cash payment or if it is not possible for you to receive this Stipend at the designated payment location or date, it may be assumed that you have declined the payment.

☐I wish to receive payment in cash because bank transfer is not possible in my case. (Enter ✓ in the check box (□))
(If you wish to receive payment in cash, but you have already filled out and attached a copy of the "Bank Account for transfer of Stipend" form, priority will be given to bank transfer.)
